Report of One Day Workshop on “Intellectual Property Rights(IPR)”
Date: 22/04/2022

IQAC, Sir Sayyed College, Aurangabad organized one day workshop on “Intellectual Property Rights”. Chief Guest Dr. Shamama Parveen, President, RECW’S, Aurangabad, inaugurated the workshop and Principal Dr Shaikh Kabeer Ahmed presided over the inaugural function of workshop. Dr. Shaikh Suhel Samad, and Dr. Binnaser Aziz Alkaseri, delivered the talks on Intellectual Property Rights in this workshop. In the first session Dr. Shaikh Suhel Samad explained what is IPR, importance of IPR, a brief history. In his talk he explained how to protect IPR, difference between forgery and counterfeiting. In the second session of workshop Dr. Binnaser Aziz Alkaseri, delivered a talk on types of Intellectual Property Rights, patents, copyrights and trademarks. Vice Principal Dr. Shaikh Mohd Azhar proposed the vote of thanks. Total 41 participants including teachers as well as students participated in the workshop.

Outcome of the Workshop: Teachers and Students got the knowledge of IPR ie. Intellectual Property refers to creation of mind such as invention, literary, artistic work, design etc. IPR is protected by law for example patent, copyright, which enable people to earn recognition to the invention or creation.

Teachers and Students also understand what is

Patent: An exclusive right granted by law to an inventor or assignee to prevent others from commercially benefiting from his/her patented invention without permission, for a limited period of time in exchange for detailed public disclosure of patented invention.

Copyrights: Copyright is a form of IPR concerned with protecting works of human intellect. The domain of copyright is literary and artistic works, might that be writings, musicals and works of fine arts, such as paintings and sculptures, as well as technology-based works such as computer programs and electronic databases.

Trademarks: A trademark is a sign that individualizes the goods or services of a given enterprise and distinguishes them from those of competitors. To fall under law protection, a trademark must be distinctive, and not deceptive, illegal or immoral.
