Sir Sayyed College of Arts, Commerce and Science, Aurangabad

Sir Sayyed College of Arts, Commerce & Science is one of the minority institutions in Aurangabad city. It is one of the leading institutions engaged in imparting quality education in the stream of Arts, Commerce & Science since two decades. The college is located in the predominantly Muslim area. The location holds importance as it makes the college easily accessible to the purdah-observing girl students whom the conservative family set-up usually do not permit to go to distant colleges for higher education.

The college is marching ahead under the able guidance of Prof. Mohd Tilawat Ali, founder president of Rehbar Educational, Cultural & Welfare Society, Aurangabad; with the strong belief that mere imparting and acquisition of formal knowledge does not suffice. It strongly holds that unless a student develops a humane, scientific outlook and a strong sense of responsibility towards our society, the aim of higher education remains unachieved.

Vision & Mission

- To propagate, encourage and provide education.
 - To create general awareness about women's education amongst Muslims.
 - To make responsible, secular and humane citizen with strong commitment to values of nationalism and tolerance.
 - To offer an environment conducive for learning and creative thinking.
 - To provide quality education necessary for building of students' character and development of skills so that they could face challenges of life confidently with determination.
 - To uplift the deprived and academically weak students by empowering them with knowledge.
 - To develop social, moral, aesthetic and ethical values amongst students and make them competent enough to contribute for the betterment of mankind.
